Andrew Martin.

He'll be OK: growing gorgeous boys into good men / Book]
Celia Lashlie.
After years working in the prison service, Celia Lashlie knows what can happen when boys make the wrong choices. During the recent Good Man Project she talked to 180 classes of boys throughout New Zealand, and what she found was surprising, amusing and, in some case, frightening. In this book, she reveals what goes on inside the world of boys, and that it is an entirely different world from that of girls.

The girl with the butterfly tattoo: a girl's guide to claiming her power.
The butterfly is a symbol of transformation. It reminds us that we are all able to change. We can make choices and we are in control. This book inspires and empowers girls to find their strength and be true to their own hearts and minds.

Thriving at school: a practical guide to help your child enjoy the crucial school years
John Irvine and John Stewart.

Steve Biddulph's raising girls / [Book]
Steve Biddulph.
Steve Biddulph's Raising Girls explores how to help your daughter feel secure, become an explorer, get along with others, find her soul, and become a woman. All the hazards are signposted -- bullying, eating disorders, body image and depression, social media harms and helps -- as are concrete and simple measures for both mums and dads to help prevent their daughters from becoming victims. Parenthood is restored to an exciting journey, not one worry after another, as it's so often portrayed.
